To whom it may concern,

DACOROM International, through the professionalism of its employees, has always provided full support in choosing the best solutions to our specific requirements related to port operation services and not only.

Reliability and efficiency of its staff convinced us that this company holds the material and management experience to carry out its activity in this area.

In conclusion, we recommend DACOROM International as a professional and reliable partner for any company that will relate to and appreciate the quality services which currently make a positive difference over its competitors.
